Reviewing The Season

TOLEDO'S GREATEST YEAR (AGAIN)

A year ago in this Tangerine Bowl special it was written that 1969 would go down in history as the greatest football season in University of Toledo history, a football past that dates back to 1917. There was much to be proud of: a 10-0 regular season, a first team all-America, eight first team all-Mid-American Conference picks, the school's first undisputed MAC football title ever, and ranking in the country's top 20 teams for the first time ever.

What could the 1970 Rockets do for an encore? Skeptics worried that coach Frank Lauterbur's Rockets would have no incentives left, that complacency would set in, that there was no possible way Toledo could improve on the laurels won in 1969.

Well, all the results are in, save the Tangerine Bowl, and Lauterbur and his Rockets have answered all the questions, all the doubts with an even bigger and better season, making 1970 truly the greatest year yet in Toledo football history.

Given an opportunity to play one more game than ever before, the Rockets responded by winning all 11 contests scheduled, running Toledo's consecutive game victory streak to 22 in a row, second longest win string in the nation and the most ever compiled by any Mid-American Conference or Ohio college team.

Besides earning Toledo's second straight MAC title and Tangerine Bowl bid, the Rockets upstaged the 1969 team by finishing No. 14 in the final Associated Press poll of major football teams and by finishing in the top 20 of UPI, Football News, and Kickoff.

For the second year in a row, one of Lauterbur's Rockets was accorded first team all-America honors. Defensive tackle Mel Long took his place in the all-America ranks alongside defensive back Curtis Johnson, 1969 all-America who this past season won a starting job with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League.

And for the second year in a row, quarterback Chuck Ealey was named the Mid-American Conference's "Back of the Year." A year ago Ealey was the first sophomore ever so honored, and now he becomes the first player ever so honored two years in a row.

MAC coaches must have agreed that the 1970 Rockets were even better than those of 1969, for the league mentors named 11 Toledo players to first team all-MAC positions, compared to the eight Rockets picked in 1969 and the record 10 Toledoans named in 1967. Named offensively were end Don Fair, tackle Ken Wilson, guard Bob Caverly, Ealey, and running back Charlie Cole. Picked defensively were end Bob Rose, long, middle guard Steve Schnitkey, linebacker John Niezgoda, strong safety Tom Duncan, and free safety Gary Hinkson.

Statistically, the 1970 Rockets also were the greatest ever at Toledo. For a second straight year Toledo finished No. 1 nationally in total defense, and Toledo also was No. 1 in pass defense, No. 2 in defense against scoring, No. 13 in rushing defense, and No. 14 in scoring.

Three Rockets rewrote MAC individual records: Chuck Ealey set new marks for pass completions and pass yardage in one season and for most touchdown passes in a career; Don Fair set new one season records for number of passes caught and for pass yardage; and Tom Duncan set one season marks for most field goals and most points by kick-scoring. (Consult individual sketches for further details).

As a team the Rockets set seven new MAC season records for all games, tied another, and set two new marks for MAC games only. (Consult 1970 team statistics for records established).

There remains only one thing for the 1970 Rockets to accomplish in proving that they are indeed the greatest Toledo team ever, if not the greatest ever in the MAC and one of the greatest ever in Ohio, and that is to repeat as Tangerine Bowl champion, if possible in a convincing manner.

The Season In Review

TOLEDO 35, EAST CAROLINA 2

Ealey completed 12 of 21 passes for 156 yards and fullback Cole rushed for 105 on 16 carries, including three touchdowns, as the Rockets eased past their third Southern Conference opponent in as many tries.

Toledo's defensive unit scored one TD, end Bob Rose recovering a blocked punt in the end zone, and set up another to give evidence that the defenders would again be a typically strong Lauterbur-coached unit.

TOLEDO 27, BUFFALO 6

Toledo's defense limited Buffalo to 149 total yards, and sub back Schwartz led the Rockets offensively by catching two scoring passes from Ealey. The Rocket QB also passed for a score to tight end Steve Bowman, and Duncan, replacing all-time kicking great Ken Crots, booted two field goals to complete the scoring.

Ealey tied the Toledo pass completion record with 22 strikes in 42 attempts for a total of 251 yards. Schwartz led Rocket ground gainers with 70 yards on 20 carries. Nine of Ealey's passes were completed to Fair.

TOLEDO 42, OHIO 7

Toledo piled up 461 yards against the Bobcats, 177 of them coming on Ealey's 9 pass completions in 13 attempts and 127 coming as tailback Tony Harris, out with a bad knee the first two games, returned to action and carried the ball 18 times.

Lauterbur pulled Ealey early in the fourth quarter, but Rocket subs added two more touchdowns as Toledo defeated Ohio for the first time ever under Lauterbur in Athens. The Rocket defense limited OU to a total of 219 yards.

TOLEDO 52, MARSHALL 3

In a game played in a steady rain, the Rockets bombed Marshall with 513 yards in total offense even though Lauterbur pulled all his starters at the end of the third period with a 32-3 lead.

Ealey hit on 19 of 30 passes good for 255 yards, and he tied a Mid-Am single game record with four touchdown tosses, two to Baker and one each to Fair and Schwartz. Ealey also gained 78 yards rushing on 11 carries.

Toledo's defensive unit limited Marshall to 170 net yards and accounted for two TDs, one coming when Ron Roberts ran 37 yards with a punt blocked by Mel Long and the other on Steve Banks' 44-yard interception return.

TOLEDO 20, BOWLING GREEN 0

A record crowd of more than 21,000 (some 5,000 over capacity) overflowed the Glass Bowl to see one of the more classic defensive struggles in MAC history. Toledo was held to 235 yards by BG's aggressive defense, but the Rocket defenders were even better, holding the Falcons to a mere 97 yards for the night.

Toledo opened a quick 14-0 lead on Steve Banks' 77-yard punt return and Glyn Smith's 38-yard reverse and then settled down to protect that advantage. Two field goals by Duncan in the final quarter concluded the scoring.

Ealey passed for 77 yards (66 of them on 7 completions to Fair), and Cole ground out 57 tough yards on 19 cracks at the rugged BG defense.

TOLEDO 20, WESTERN MICHIGAN 0

An all-time MAC record crowd of more than 23,000 watched in Western Michigan's Waldo Stadium as the Rockets and the Broncos struggled to a 0-0 tie through three quarters, and then Toledo got its offense rolling for 20 fourth-quarter points.

Toledo totaled 354 yards for the day to only 147 for Western Michigan. (The Broncos were averaging over 400 per game up to Toledo and gained over 500 a game after that).

Ealey completed 11 of 22 passes for 142 yards and ran for 65 more. Fair caught 8 passes covering 110 yards, and one was for a touchdown. Cole got another Rocket TD on a short plunge, and Duncan put through two more field goals, one from 41 yards out.

TOLEDO 14, MIAMI 13

Only 3:07 remained to play and Toledo trailed Miami 13-7, thanks to a freak Red-skin touchdown scored when a punt glanced off a Rocket and was recovered in the end zone for a Miami TD. Chuck Ealey then guided Toledo 47 yards to the Miami 3-yard line where it was first and goal. On the next play Ealey rolled left for the score, standing up, and Tom Duncan added the winning extra point that insured the Rockets' second straight MAC title and Tangerine Bowl bid.

Ealey was 4-for-4 in passes during the drive and 17 for 25 for 167 yards in the game. His 24-yard scoring pass to Al Baker accounted for the other touchdown. Charlie Cole hammered the tough Miami defense for 68 yards rushing.

Toledo's defenders, faced with a Miami first down at the Rocket 6-yard line at the start of the fourth period, came through in the clutch to prevent a TD.

TOLEDO 31, DAYTON 7

On a field turned to mush by a game-long snowstorm, the Rockets downed Dayton 31-7, using a 21-point fourth quarter to turn the trick after the defensive unit had stymied Dayton's offense the entire game. The Flyers were held to only 44 total yards for the day.

Chuck Ealey, defying the slippery football, completed 12 of 24 passes good for 142 yards and ran for 47 more, 30 of it coming on Toledo's first touchdown. Charlie Cole scored on a one-yard plunge, Tony Harris on a six-yard sweep of right end, and Jeff Calabrese on a three-yard pass from Bruce Arthur. Tom Duncan's 11th field goal of the year concluded Toledo's scoring.

TOLEDO 24, COLORADO STATE 14

Chuck Ealey set MAC all-games record for pass completions and pass yardage in piling up 194 yards on 13 of 27 attempts as Toledo took Colorado State, 24-14. Don Fair set the MAC all-games record for receiving yardage, and Tom Duncan put his league field goal record up to 12 for the year.

Ealey ran 23 yards for one score, and his 15-yard TD pass to Jeff Calabrese set a new MAC career record of 30 touchdown passes. Tony Harris ran 24 yards for another Rocket score.

Toledo's pass defense, which had given up no touchdowns through the air during the entire season, saw its dreams of a perfect year in that department go down the drain when CSU scored on an aerial with one second left in the game.

WHAT OTHERS SAID OF THE 1970 ROCKETS

With the University of Toledo's regular season completed and the Rockets the first team in Mid-American Conference history ever to put together back-to-back unbeaten, untied seasons, it may be appropriate to list some of the more glowing tributes about coach Frank X. Lauterbur's Tangerine Bowl bound team from coaches and writers outside Toledo. Their comments follow:

(Before the season began) "Anyone who can stay within four touchdowns of Toledo will have a successful season." (Bill Doolittle, Western Michigan coach . . . Western Michigan lost to Toledo 20-0 but finished the year with a 7-3 record and included non-league wins over West Texas State and Brigham Young).

"Even if the (Miami) Redskins came in the game disguised in uniforms of the Cleveland Browns, it is unlikely that it would throw any fright into the Rockets. They've tromped over everybody this year, over everybody for two seasons, for that matter." (Bill Anzer, Cincinnati Enquirer)

"A lot of people think Toledo is the best team ever in the Mid-American Conference. I can't argue with that. They've just got such great talent." (Bill Mallory, Miami of Ohio coach).

"Toledo is the best team in the history of the Mid-American Conference." (Don Nehlen, Bowling Green coach).

"Just how good is the University of Toledo's unbeaten football powerhouse? 'Strong enough to be champion in most major conferences, and they would finish no worse than third in the Big Ten' says a National Football League scout who works the entire country." (Jack Moss, Kalamazoo, Mich., Gazette sports editor)

"Holy Toledo? Let's not go that far, but it is safe to believe that the Rockets are the closest thing to perfection the Mid-American Conference has seen in awhile." (Scott Bosley, Akron Beacon Journal)

"Toledo is the best team in Mid-American Conference history. Many have said that Ohio University's 1968 team, which was un-becten, was the best ever, but this Toledo team is as good offensively and much stronger defensively. They're playing above our league somewhere. Maybe they should be in the Big Ten—or the NFL." (Dave Pudington, Kent State coach)

"Coach Frank Lauterbur should go someplace else—anyplace else—for the sake of the Mid-American Conference . . . here it was a healthy, competitive circuit all these years. Then along comes this guy with the fancy 'X' as a middle initial and darn if he doesn't practically kill it. Toledo has the second longest win streak in America, and the end is nowhere in sight. Mid-Am teams are so desperate they're beginning to think of ways to handicap the Rockets like you'd handicap a horse race." (Bill Clark, Orlando, Fla., Sentinel)

"Toledo might just be the best ball club I have seen in my 12 years of coaching in the Mid-American Conference." (Bill Hess, Ohio University coach)

"Toledo certainly is in the same class as Arizona State, Air Force and West Virginia, and that Ealey is as fine a quarterback as we have faced all year." (Jerry Wampfler, Colorado State coach, whose team met the three nationally-ranked teams above and played against 5 of the top 20 total offense leaders, including Bob Parker of Air Force and Joe Spagnola of Arizona State).

TANGERINE BOWL—THIS YEAR AND LAST

The University of Toledo Rockets, be they offensive or defensive players, have goals in mind for the 1970 Tangerine Bowl game.

The offense will be seeking to measure up to last year's exhibition in which Toledo rolled up 56 points, highest point total in school history and in Tangerine Bowl history, and totaled 486 yards rushing and passing.

The defense figures it has something to prove.

A year ago, as it does this season, Toledo carried a reputation as the nation's No. 1 team in total defense into the Tangerine Bowl. The first half Toledo looked every bit as outstanding defensively as it was supposed to be, limiting Davidson to little more than 100 yards as the Rockets piled up a 42-7 halftime lead.

But in the second half a Rocket lapse defensively permitted Davidson's point total to rise to 33. Toledo won easily, 56-33, but the point total and Davidson's 383 total yards caused one wire service to comment negatively about the Rockets' defensive record.

Returning to action in the Tangerine Bowl will be the Toledo players who ran 1-2 in balloting a year ago for "Most Outstanding Back" honors in the game, quarterback Chuck Ealey and fullback Charlie Cole.

Ealey netted 83 yards on nine rushing tries, completed 13 of 17 passes good for 186 yards, scored one touchdown and passed for two others. Cole netted 152 yards on 22 rushing tries, scored three times, and caught two passes good for 21 yards.

What They Did In 1970

LETTERMEN PROFILES

BRUCE ARTHUR, quarterback, 5-11, 175, 19, sophomore, Archbold, Ohio. Understudied starter Chuck Ealey and saw action in 10 of the 11 Toledo games, gaining 176 yards by completing 15 of 26 passes (two for touchdowns) and adding 94 yards on 26 carries for a 3.6 average. He scored one TD by running. Bruce has copied Ealey's style of play as closely as possible. His touchdown passes came against Marshall and Dayton and his TD run against Marshall.

LYNN ASCHILMAN, center, 6-1, 195, 21, junior, Archbold. Has been a starter for two seasons and had one of the highest offensive efficiency ratings (81 per cent for 697 plays) this past fall of any lineman. He also had 7 crossfield blocks and 1 "extra effort." His overall performance was an improvement over a sophomore season when he was 68 per cent for 528 plays. He scored Toledo's final 1970 Tangerine Bowl touchdown on a fumble recovery. One of the squad's married men.

AL BAKER, tight end, 6-2, 205, 20, junior, Toledo (Scott). Has started every game the past two years and earned second team all-MAC honors in 1970. As a sophomore he caught 21 passes good for 435 yards and five touchdowns. During the past season he grabbed 29 good for 440 yards and three TDs. Al's scores in 1970 came against Marshall (2) and Miami, the latter the most important pass Baker ever caught. He took a 22-yarder away from three defenders along the right end zone sideline marker in Toledo's 14-13 championship victory. Baker also is an excellent blocker. He averaged 76 per cent efficiency on 746 plays and had 1 "extra effort."

TONY BALTES, linebacker, 5-11, 195, 21, senior, Versailles, Ohio. Tony started the season as a regular until all-MAC John Niezgod rounded into form, and then when Charlie Burgbacher suffered a knee injury Baltes came on to start again and call defensive signals. Baltes suffered a shoulder dislocation in the Kent State game, yet played in spite of severe pain in all four quarters of next week's game against Miami and continued playing, his shoulder in a harness much of the time, the remainder of the season. Baltes was in on 108 tackles, blocked seven passes, intercepted one, and tackled backs for losses six times totaling 26 yards, and coaches credited him with 11 "extra effort" plays.

STEVE BANKS, corner back, 5-11, 175, 20, junior, Fostoria, Ohio (St. Wendelin). Steve began the season as the corner back on the short side of the field, then made the difficult transition to the wide side when John Saunders broke a leg in the second game of the year. Banks not only made the switch successfully but played outstanding football. He won second team all-MAC honors in a year when great defensive backs abounded in the league. Steve was in on 64 tackles, intercepted two passes, returning one for a touchdown, recovered two fumbles, knocked down five passes, and saved two TDs with tackles. Six times he tackled runners for losses totaling 13 yards. Banks also returned a record 27 punts for 220 yards, including one 77-yard touchdown against Bowling Green, and had 7 "extra efforts."

guard. He was in on 98 plays, scored 74 per cent efficiency, and had 2 "extra effort" marks.

DALE BENINGTON, offensive tackle, 6-2, 210, 20, junior, Toledo (Start). Benington lettered as the No. 3 or "swing" tackle behind Jim Goodman and Ken Wilson. He was in on 94 plays, scored 79 per cent efficiency, had 1 "extra effort" and 1 cross-field block.

STEVE BOWMAN, tight end-offensive tackle, 6-2, 205, 20, sophomore, Portsmouth, Ohio (Notre Dame). Bowman lettered by doubling as tight end substitute for Al Baker and in the last half of the season also played a lot of offensive tackle, sometimes switching jerseys on the field as he changed positions. He was in on 423 plays, scored 71 per cent efficiency, had 3 cross-field blocks, and 1 "extra effort." He caught 3 passes, one for a touchdown, good for 25 total yards.

CHARLIE BURGBACHER, linebacker, 6-0, 210, 22, senior, Kenton, Ohio. A two-year letterman, Burgbacher began the season as the defensive signal caller and served in that capacity until the season's seventh game when a knee injury against Kent State cut him down. Burgbacher had a cartilage operation and missed the final three contests of the year. During his playing time, Charlie made 61 tackles, three times tackled runners for losses totaling 15 yards, blocked two passes, recovered two fumbles and had 6 "extra efforts." He won honorable mention all-MAC.

JEFF CALABRESE, flanker back, 6-2, 180, 19, sophomore, Parma, Ohio. Calabrese opened the season as one of the few sophomore starters and after that shared the flanker spot with another soph, Glyn Smith. Jeff caught nine passes good for 118 yards and two touchdowns. His scores came against Dayton and Colorado State. His overall efficiency was 84 per cent for 209 plays and he had 1 "extra effort."

LEON CAMPBELL, offensive guard, 6-2, 220, 21, junior, Toledo (Scott). Campbell lettered as offensive center two years ago, sat out last season, and returned to start most of the time this year at right guard. He was in on 711 offensive plays, scored 68 per cent efficiency, and had 6 crossfield blocks. Won honorable mention all-MAC.

BOB CAVERLY, offensive guard, 6-2, 210, 21, senior, Toledo (Start). Bob has started every game for the past three seasons and made 1970 his best year yet, winning first team all-MAC honors and scoring 76 per cent efficiency on 772 plays, the second highest number of any Rocket offensive player. He had 7 crossfield blocks and 2 "extra efforts." The stats were improvements over his junior year when Caverly was 68 per cent for 700 plays. One of the squad's married men; wife's name is Judy.

CHARLIE COLE, fullback, 6-2, 225, 22, senior, Toledo (Scott). Cole has scored 21 touchdowns in the last two seasons and netted over 600 yards rushing in each campaign, 625 last year and 642 in 1970. His average per carry was 4.3 a year ago, 3.8 this year. Cole's scores the past season came against East Carolina (3), Ohio University, Western Michigan, Northern Illinois, Dayton and Kent State. Cole was named a first team all-MAC running back. In last year's Tangerine Bowl game he netted 150 yards on 22 carries and scored three touchdowns. Charlie scored 81 per cent in efficiency on 735 plays and had 2 "extra efforts."

STEVE DONAHUE, defensive end, 6-3, 205, 19, sophomore, Bellefontaine, Ohio. Donahue lettered as the No. 3 or "swing man" behind Bob Rose and Ron Roberts. Steve also served on the specialty teams. He was credited with 12 tackles.

WILLIE DUKE, defensive tackle, 6-3, 225, 19, sophomore, Toledo (Scott). Duke lettered as the No. 3 or "swing" tackle behind Mel Long and Don Hotz and also saw action with the specialty teams. He was credited with 19 tackles.

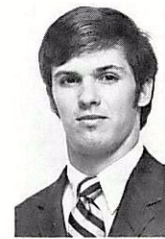

Cole

Ealey

Fair

TOM DUNCAN, strong safety, 6-0, 190, 21, senior, Toledo (Bowsher). Co-captain of the championship Rockets and a first team all-MAC performer after a career which saw him start every game for three straight seasons, the first two as a corner back. Duncan made 237 tackles in three years, intercepted 12 passes and returned them for 217 yards and two touchdowns. During the past season he also was credited with having broken up three other passes, making two touchdown saves with tackles, recovering two fumbles, and had 12 "extra efforts." Duncan also became a record-setting placekicker as a senior. He set Toledo and MAC one-season records with 12 field goals and 72 total points via kick-scoring in spite of having taken up place kicking only this season. Duncan also has handled Toledo's kickoff duties for three years. Tom will play in the annual Senior Bowl game next month in Mobile, Ala.

CHUCK EALEY, quarterback, 6-0, 185, 20, junior, Portsmouth, Ohio (Notre Dame). Tri-captain-elect for 1971. Many, including rival MAC coaches, already call Ealey the greatest quarterback ever in league history. His own coach calls him as good or better than any QB in the land. Fans, players and coaches have called him "amazing . . . Mr. Cool . . . something else." The facts are that Ealey a year ago was the first sophomore ever named MAC "Back of the year" and that he won the same honor again in 1970 in a landslide. Counting three undefeated high school seasons, Ealey's record as a varsity quarterback now stands at 52-0. His two-year statistical totals read as follows: 3,326 yards gained passing on 247 completions in 438 attempts (56 per cent completion average); 563 rushing yards; 3,889 yards total offense; 30 touchdown passes; 7 touchdowns rushing. Ealey is not called "Mr. Cool" for nothing. Fifty-seven times last year, 69 times so far this season Ealey has either run or passed for first downs in crucial third and fourth down situations. Chuck led the nation's quarterbacks in fewest passes had intercepted this past season, only 9 of his 263 passes having been picked off by opponents. Only three QB's (Duke's Leo Hart, Auburn's Pat Sullivan, and Notre Dame's Joe Theismann) had better completion percentages. Only four threw for more TD passes. Ealey will be attempting to repeat as winner of the Tangerine Bowl's trophy as most valuable back. A year ago he completed 13 of 17 passes for 186 yards and two touchdowns and ran 52 yards for a third.

DICK EBERLIN, linebacker, 6-0, 195, 20, sophomore, Orchard Park, New York. Eberlin lettered primarily as a linebacker, seeing lots of action in the season's final three games after injuries riddled the Rockets' linebacking corps. Dick also played with the specialty teams and has been a defensive end and an offensive running back. He was credited with 26 tackles and 1 "extra effort."

DON FAIR, open end, 6-0, 165, 20, junior, Canton, Ohio (Lehman). Fair won first team all-MAC honors after rewriting the Toledo and MAC books for most pass catches in one season and most yardage in one season. Fair grabbed 76 passes covering 893 yards. Four catches went for touchdowns. Don's two-year totals read 109 passes caught for 1,362 yards. Fair ranked among the nation's leading pass catchers all season long. He also holds Toledo's one-game record with 11 catches against Marshall. Don scored 84 per cent efficiency, had 9 "extra efforts," and 2 crossfield blocks.

BOB FLYNN, corner back, 5-10, 175, 21, senior, Toledo (Cardinal Stritch). Flynn won his third varsity letter, stepping into a starting corner back spot when junior John Saunders suffered a broken leg in the season's second game. Flynn was credited with 77 tackles, one pass interception, blocked two other passes, and had 2 "extra efforts." Bob also serves as Toledo's short man on punt returns. Won honorable mention all-MAC.

Flynn

Harris

TONY HARRIS, tailback, 6-2, 195, 22, senior, Cleveland, Ohio (John F. Kennedy). Co-captain and one of the Rockets' leading ground gainers each of the last two years. A knee injury in pre-season practice cost Tony the first three games of the season, and not until the final half of the year did he begin rounding into the slashing type of runner he was a year ago. He finished the season with 468 yards, a healthy 4.3 per carry average, and 4 touchdowns, giving him a two-year total of 1,317 yards, 12 touchdowns and an average per carry of 5.2. When sound, Harris ranks as one of the finest open field runners in college football. He scored 75 per cent efficiency on 334 plays.

GARY HINKSON, free safety, 6-1, 175, 20, junior, Warren, Ohio (Western Reserve). Tri-captain-elect for 1971, Hinkson won first team all-MAC honors after a season in which he tied a record set just a year ago by Curtis Johnson, all-America who this season is with Miami's Dolphins, a record of 7 interceptions in a single season. Hinkson now has 13 in his career and needs only two more to break Johnson's Toledo career record of 14. Gary was credited with 89 tackles the past year to go with 105 the season before. He knocked down 5 passes besides the ones intercepted, saved 2 touchdowns, and was credited with 8 "extra efforts."

DON HOTZ, defensive tackle, 6-3, 225, 22, senior, Fremont, Ohio (St. Joseph). Hotz won second team all-MAC honors. He has been a starter for the past two seasons and in that time has been credited with 294 tackles in 22 games. The past season he had 134, third highest total on the team and tied with all-America Mel Long. Four times Hotz got ball carriers behind the line for losses of 21 yards. He blocked three passes, recovered one fumble, and saved one touchdown. He was credited with 9 "extra efforts."

Hinkson

Hotz

Long

Nemeč

MIKE HURT, strong safety, 6-0, 175, 20, sophomore, Toledo (DeVilbiss). Hurt began the season as an offensive flanker back and was moved to the defensive backfield after John Saunders' injury. He lettered by seeing action in 25 quarters with the defense and with specialty teams. He was credited with 15 tackles, intercepted one pass, and had 3 "extra efforts."

MEL LONG, defensive tackle, 6-1, 230, 24, junior, Toledo (Macomber). Tri-captain-elect for 1971, Mel was named a first team all-America by NEA and for the second straight year a first team all-MAC pick. He is called by coach Frank Lauterbur "the best defensive tackle I've seen in 21 years of coaching college football." Long was credited with 134 tackles, second only to linebacker John Niezgoda and middle guard Steve Schnitkey, got enemy backs behind the line 15 times for losses of 70 yards, blocked five passes, blocked one punt, and had 18 "extra efforts." His two-year total reads 241 tackles and 37 "extra efforts" or big plays on defense. Mel has unbelievable speed, quickness and agility for a tackle. He is a Viet Nam veteran and Navy Cross winner for gallantry with the Marines.

JIM NEMEČ, center, 6-1, 214, 22, senior, Monroeville, Pa. (Gateway). Nemeč has won three varsity letters, all as back-up center, the past two years behind Lynn Aschilman. Nemeč has been called upon to replace Aschilman because of injury several times the past two years and always comes up with winning work. His only liability is lack of speed. Scored 82 per cent efficiency on 97 plays.

JOHN NIEZGODA, linebacker, 6-0, 213, 21, junior, Toledo (Central Catholic). First team all-MAC for two years in a row and one of the finest linebackers in Mid-American history. (Some have called him the equal of Miami's Bob Babich, now playing with San Diego's Chargers). Niezgoda made 201 tackles as a sophomore, had 177 the past season even though he began the season slowly and was not a starter. He soon regained his spot and was as outstanding as ever. John made seven tackles behind the line for losses of 34 yards, intercepted two passes, knocked down two more, recovered a fumble, and had 17 "extra efforts." Niezgoda has excellent speed and quickness plus great agility and a desire to hit people on defense.

HOWARD PERNELL, strong safety, 6-0, 185, 22, senior, Cleveland (John Adams). Won his second letter by seeing action in 38 of 41 quarters even though not a starter. He was credited with 20 tackles, intercepted one pass, recovered a fumble, saved one touchdown, and had 2 "extra efforts."

DARREL REASONOVER, middle guard, 5-8, 175, 19, sophomore, Toledo (Woodward). Probably the most popular substitute and specialist in Rocket history. Darrel thrilled Toledo fans on the kickoff team, time and again nailing ball carriers inside the 20 yard line. He also subbed for Steve Schnitkey. Reasonover was credited with 42 tackles, the majority of them with the kickoff unit and the punting team, and had 2 "extra efforts." He has good speed and a competitive desire to hit people in spite of his size.

RON ROBERTS, defensive end, 6-2, 213, 20, junior, Toledo (Scott). Roberts won his second letter and second team all-MAC honors as the starting right end on defense. He was in on 111 tackles, fifth highest total on the team, four times got ball carriers for losses of 17 yards, blocked three passes, and had 14 "extra efforts." Won second team all-MAC.

BOB ROSE, defensive end, 6-1, 210, 20, junior, Archbold. Rose was moved from linebacker to defensive end only a week before the 1970 season began and wound up winning first team all-MAC honors. He made 10 fewer tackles than Ron Roberts (101) but was credited with 21 "extra efforts" and 16 times hit ball carriers behind the line for losses totaling 97 yards. He also intercepted a pass, blocked two others, recovered three fumbles, and scored one touchdown. A year ago, demonstrating his versatility and all-around athletic ability, Rose lettered as an offensive guard.

JOHN SAUNDERS, corner back, 6-3, 202, 20, junior, Toledo (Macomber). Saunders began the season as a repeat starter and a likely candidate for all-MAC honors but broke a leg in the year's second game and did not return to action until the next to last contest of the year. He has as much natural ability as last year's all-America corner back Curtis Johnson and this winter is doubling in athletics as a member of the varsity basketball team. (He was all-City League in both football and basketball in high school).

STEVE SCHNITKEY, middle guard, 6-0, 194, 20, junior, Archbold. Along with Bob Rose, Schnitkey became known as one of Toledo's "Archbold Assassins." He won first team all-MAC honors and his second varsity letter with a team-leading total of 178 tackles, and 20 of his "hits" were on ball carriers behind the line. They totaled losses of 91 yards. Schnitkey also intercepted 3 passes and returned them 23 yards, blocked 5 other passes, recovered 2 fumbles, and blocked 2 punts. Coaches credited him with 25 "extra efforts," more than anyone else on the defensive unit. Schnitkey, a high school sprinter, broad jumper, high jumper, and shot putter, has great speed, quickness, agility and strength.

JOE SCHWARTZ, running back, 6-1, 200, 20, sophomore, Adrian, Mich. (Catholic Central). Schwartz was one of Toledo's most valuable players even though seldom a starter. He spelled both Charlie Cole and Tony Harris and started some games when Harris was injured. Schwartz finished as the third leading ground gainer (402 yards, 3.9 avg.), rushed for 4 touchdowns, and caught 17 passes good for 166 yards and 5 more scores. He was second only to Tom Duncan in team scoring, scored

Roberts

Rose

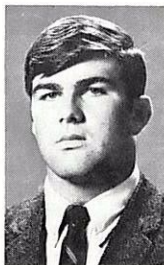

Saunders

Schnitkey

Schwartz

Wilson

78 per cent for 460 plays, and had 4 "extra efforts."

JEFF SIEK, punter, 5-10, 175, 22, senior, Toledo (Macomber). There are punters with better averages, but few are as effective as Siek. Only 15 of Siek's punts were returned this season, a testimony not only to excellent coverage by his mates but to the fact that most of Siek's punts are high if not long. For the second straight year he averaged 33 yards per punt and had no kicks blocked.

GLYN SMITH, flanker back, 6-0, 175, 21, sophomore, Toledo (Woodward). Smith saw action in 33 quarters, sometimes as a starter, and was the fourth leading pass receiver with 14 catches for 268 yards and 1 touchdown. He also ran 8 times from scrimmage, netting 46 yards, and had one of the season's biggest scores, a 38-yard reverse in Toledo's ruggedly-fought win over Bowling Green. Smith also returned 5 kick-offs for 119 yards. He scored 82 per cent efficiency for 410 plays and had 3 "extra efforts."

BOB VICKERS, running back, 5-10, 195, 19, sophomore, Toledo (Scott). Vickers netted 96 yards and averaged 3.3 per carry in winning his first letter, usually running behind Charlie Cole, Tony Harris, and Joe Schwartz. Scored 80 per cent efficiency for 106 plays.

KEN WILSON, offensive tackle, 6-3, 225, 21, senior, Toledo (Whitmer). Has started 31 consecutive games for the Rockets and this past season won first team all-MAC honors. Ken was in on more plays (774) than any other Rocket player and scored 75 per cent in efficiency. He also had twice as many crossfield blocks (19) as any offensive lineman. All marks were improvements over last year when, also as a starter he scored 67 per cent on 681 plays and had 10 crossfield blocks.

The Head Coach and Athletic Director

FRANK X. LAUTERBUR

Frank X. Lauterbur, 45, is the "Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year" for the third time in four seasons and is the first MAC coach in the league's 24-year history to be nominated for national coach of the year honors. He is one of eight coaches nominated across the nation, one of whom will be named "Coach of the Year" Jan. 14 at the annual convention of the American Football Coaches Association.

With eight years already behind him as coach of the Rockets, Lauterbur already has held the head football coaching position longer than any previous Toledo coach since the sport began at the University in 1917, and his last two Toledo teams have achieved greatness matched by no other Rocket team in history. He not only is the first MAC coach ever to win 11 games in one season; Lauterbur has done it twice in a row. His current Rockets rank higher nationally than any team in Mid-American Conference history.

Lauterbur was named head football coach at The University of Toledo on April 2, 1963, succeeding Clive H. Rush, who had resigned suddenly March 22. Slightly more than two months later, June 10 to be exact, Lauterbur's all around qualities had so impressed the Athletic Board of Control, that the group named him as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics. Lauterbur's wide contacts in both the college and professional sports world, and his warm personality and down-to-earth personal approach to everyone have made him a natural for the position. His close interest in the high school coaching fraternity and his willingness to crowd as many public appearances as possible into his busy schedule has made him doubly popular as a coach.

Lauterbur's biggest accomplishment, however, has been the upgrading of the entire athletic picture at Toledo. Besides building the football program up to MAC championship level, Lauterbur has insisted on excellence from his other sport coaches and has gotten results. Titles in basketball, tennis, golf, and wrestling have come to Toledo during Lauterbur's tenure as athletic director.

Frank X. Lauterbur

Lauterbur's career is an impressive one. His last assignment prior to coming to Toledo was at the University of Pittsburgh as defensive line coach and co-ordinator of defenses under Coach John Micheloson. Prior to that assignment he had served as defensive line coach under Colonel Earl Blaik and Dale Hall at Army (1957-62), as defensive line coach and tackle coach under Weeb Ewbank for the Baltimore Colts (1955-56), and as line coach under Trevor Rees at Kent State University (1953-55). He also had high school experience, beginning his career at Wickliffe, O., High School in 1949 and continuing at Cleveland Collinwood High from 1950-52. In three seasons at the Cleveland school his teams won 19 of 28 games, took the East Senate League championship, and rose to fifth in state-wide polls—the highest ranking a Cleveland prep team had attained up to that time.

Lauterbur was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, August 8, 1925, spent most of his youth in Sidney, Ohio, and graduated from the University of Detroit High School in 1943. He first attended Oberlin College from 1943-44 as part of the Marine Corps V-12 Program. (Lauterbur was a U. S. Marine Corps 2nd Lt. during World War II). While at Oberlin, he played on the school's 1943 Ohio Conference championship team. From 1945-46 he played both football and basketball with the Camp Pendleton Marines and was on an undefeated team there in 1945. Following the war, he attended Mt. Union College and won all-Ohio Conference honors as a guard from 1946-48. He took a bachelor's degree from Mt. Union in 1949, did graduate work at both Western Reserve University in Cleveland and Kent State University and won a master's degree from Kent in 1955.

Assistant Coaches

CHARLES C. SNYDER

When Vernon M. Smith resigned two years ago as assistant athletic director to accept a position as welfare director of the City of Toledo, Frank X. Lauterbur turned to one of his former coaching rivals to fill the vacancy, and the appointment was applauded by everyone familiar with the Mid-American Conference.

Lauterbur named Charles C. (Charlie) Snyder, 48, as Smith's replacement. Snyder was serving as dean of student affairs at Marshall University at the time of his appointment, but he is best remembered in MAC circles as head football coach of Marshall's Thundering Herd during the best football years the school has enjoyed during the current decade.

Besides his duties as assistant athletic director, Snyder coaches the wide receivers, the most prominent of whom is split end Don Fair, who this season set new Toledo and MAC records for most catches in one season and most yardage gained on pass catches in one season. Last year Snyder coached flanker back Dan Crockett, whose sensational play in the Tangerine Bowl game won him honors as the contest's Most Outstanding Lineman.

Hardy

Cornachione

DAVE HARDY

Snyder is a native of Kentucky. He was born at Catlettsburg, educated at Marshall, coached and taught at Catlettsburg High School, and coached and taught at Lafayette High School in Lexington, Ky., and in 1958 began his college coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky under Blanton Collier, now the head coach of the Cleveland Browns.

Snyder took his B.A. degree from Marshall in 1948 and the M.A. degree from the same institution in 1967.

In his eighth season as a member of Lauterbur's staff is 47-year old Dave Hardy, one of the truly outstanding teachers of offensive line blocking in college football today. Finally given the kind of blockers needed in the Mid-American Conference, Hardy has for the past four seasons shown Toledoans some of the finest interior line play ever seen in the Glass Bowl.

Hardy is especially adept at coaching the interior line, particularly guards who must pull for wide blocking. Toledo has produced four first team all-MAC offensive guards since Hardy took over coaching the position (Steve Erickson in 1965, John Brown in 1967, Mel Miller in 1968 and Bob Caverly honors this season).

As a collegian he played halfback before World War II under Dr. Clarence (Doc) Spears at The University of Toledo, and following the war he played under Bill Orwig in the last winning seasons Rocket teams knew before 1967. As a coach at Toledo DeVilbiss High School he helped turn out eight City League champions in 16 seasons.

Hardy took his bachelor's degree from Toledo in 1948 and a master's degree from Purdue University in 1951. His coaching career was spent entirely at DeVilbiss High, the first ten as an assistant and the last six as head coach. DeVilbiss won five City League titles during Hardy's assistant tenure and three more during the time he was head man.

SIL CORNACHIONE

Sil Cornachione, 42-year-old former John Carroll University football star and later a successful football and basketball coach at his alma mater, is in his fourth season as offensive backfield coach. In two of his four years in the position Toledo has ranked among the nation's top 20 teams in total offense, rushing offense, passing offense, and scoring. This season Toledo again was among the top 20 in scoring.

Since Cornachione came to Toledo, he has coached the Mid-American Conference's "Back of the Year" in three out of four seasons. Quarterback John Schneider won that honor as a senior and quarterback Chuck Ealey has taken it the last two years. Both players also ranked high each season among national passing and total offense leaders. Another Cornachione pupil was running back Roland Moss, currently in his second season of NFL play. All-MAC running backs Tony Harris and Charlie Cole are likely pro draft picks this winter.

Cornachione was an all-city back during high school days at Cleveland Collinwood, then lettered three years on some of John Carroll's best football squads. He graduated in 1951 and began coaching at Cleveland Benedictine, serving as an assistant coach with teams that won 16 of 18 games, a City League title, and fourth place in statewide polls.

In 1953 Cornachione returned to John Carroll as backfield coach and in five years helped the Blue Streaks compile a record of 27-11-1. Cornachione also began a successful basketball coaching career at John Carroll. He was named head coach in that sport in 1954 and never experienced a losing season. His 1955-56 and 1956-57 teams won invitations to the NCAA college tournaments, and his 1957-58 and 1958-59 teams won Presidents Athletic Conference championships.

Cornachione returned to high school coaching in 1959 at Cleveland Heights and coached both football and basketball over the next four years. He holds both bachelor's and master's degrees,

Strahm

Lewis

DICK STRAHM

Dick Strahm, 36-year old University of Toledo graduate, stepped into a touchy job this season, replacing Jack Murphy as coordinator of a Rocket defensive unit that had finished the season No. 1 nationally in total defense. All Strahm and his aides did was improve on that record, making Toledo No. 1 in both total defense and pass defense and No. 2 in scoring defense.

Strahm, a University of Toledo graduate (1958), returned to his alma mater after leading Warren Western Reserve High School to three consecutive 9-1 seasons and No. 5 ranking among Ohio's Class AA schools each of the last two years in both AP and UPI polls. His 1969 Warren team shut out seven opponents, limiting them to 32 total points, and in 1968 his team blanked six opponents, indicating the reason he was chosen to replace Murphy as a defensive specialist.

Strahm has a strong Toledo and Northwestern Ohio background. He graduated from Toledo Libbey High School and started his coaching career there as an assistant. After two years in the Air Force, Strahm became head football coach at nearby Lakota where he began a football program from nothing. From there he went to Bryan as head coach and in four years compiled a 28-8 record.

His success at Bryan gave Strahm an opportunity at Warren Western Reserve, a new high school at which Strahm began the football program only four years ago. He was 5-5 the first season and then 27-3 the last three years, bringing his overall head coaching record to 69-18-1.

More than a dozen Strahm-coached players hold college football grants-in-aid, including Rocket star Gary Hinkson. His other graduates are playing at Ohio State, Michigan, Ohio University, Bowling Green, Harvard, Wittenberg and Heidelberg.

DON LEWIS

Donald (Ducky) Lewis, 35-year old former head football and basketball coach at Toledo Central Catholic High School, became defensive backfield coach this year after having served as coach of middle guards and linebackers with last season's championship defense.

All Lewis did was to turn out the nation's No. 1 team in pass defense, plus two first team all-MAC picks, strong safety Tom Duncan and free safety Gary Hinkson. Lewis's defensive backs did not permit a touchdown by passing until Colorado State scored through the air with only one second remaining in the season's final game.

A year ago Lewis coached first team all-MAC linebacker John Niezgoda.

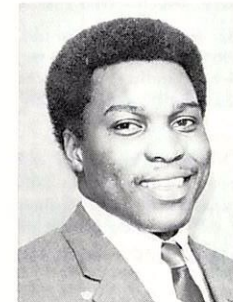

Like Dave Hardy and Dick Strahm, Lewis is a University of Toledo graduate and a Varsity 'T' letter winner. He graduated from UT in 1960 with a bachelor's degree in education. He also holds a master of arts degree from Mary Manse College in Toledo.

Lewis is a lifelong Toledoan. He graduated from Woodward High School, and all eight years of his high school coaching career were spent at Central Catholic. He was backfield coach on the school's 1962 Ohio high school championship team and later was head coach of both football and basketball. He also coached golf at Central.

ELROY MORAND

Most recent addition to the Toledo staff is Elroy Morand, 26-year old former Florida A&M star who coached Rocket middle guards and linebackers in his first year on Frank Lauterbur's staff.

Two of Morand's players, linebacker John Niezgoda and middle guard Steve Schnitkey, won first team all-MAC honors.

Morand

Morand came to Toledo from Delaware State College at Dover, Del., where he was offensive backfield coach and offensive coordinator last season.

The new Rocket freshman coach is one of the brightest of dozens of football stars turned out by the famed Jake Gaither at Florida A&M. During four seasons as quarterback at the Tallahassee, Fla., school, Morand was all-league three times (Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference), guided A&M to 35 wins in 40 games, and was in the same backfield with the world's fastest human, Bob Hayes, now of the Dallas Cowboys.

Morand played in exhibition games in 1968 with the Kansas City Chiefs and then entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Warren Western Reserve with Dick Strahm. From Warren he went to Delaware State where he worked under head coach Arnold Jeter.

Morand originally is from Ocala, Fla. He is unmarried.

THE TRAINERS

JIM NICE

Starting his 10th season as trainer of the Rockets is one of the nation's best known physical therapists, 40-year-old Jim Nice, native of Lima, Ohio.

Besides his own outstanding credentials as an athletic trainer, Nice has acquired the help of one of the finest teams of medical specialists associated with any college in the country. They are orthopedic specialist Dr. Ned Hein, surgeon Dr. Roland Gandy, and general practitioner and surgeon Dr. Bill Henry.

Nice is married. He and his wife, Pat, are the parents of two children—Nancy, age 12, and Jimmy, age 10.

BILL JONES

William D. Jones, 27, is in his first season as assistant athletic trainer, having come to Toledo from Findlay High School where he was an assistant football coach and head trainer.

Jones holds both bachelors and masters degrees from Bowling Green State University. His experience as a trainer includes four years as an undergraduate assistant at Bowling Green and three years as an assistant football coach and trainer at Vermilion High School.

Jones is a native of South Amherst and is married to a Bowling Green graduate.

PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR (SPORTS)

MAX E. GERBER

Max E. Gerber, 41, assistant director of public relations, assigned to athletics, came to The University of Toledo in August, 1960, after seven years in public education and three in journalism. He taught English, history, political science and journalism at Linden McKinley High School in Columbus and joined the editorial staff of the OHIO STATE JOURNAL after several years of free lance writing for the COLUMBUS DISPATCH, COLUMBUS CITIZEN, and the CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Gerber is a native of Jackson Center, Ohio. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Capital University (1950), a master of arts degree from Ohio State University (1960), and is a student in the doctoral program in history at The University of Toledo.

Gerber's background also includes published by-line articles in SPORT Magazine, BASEBALL DIGEST, BUCKEYE FOOTBALL, BUCKEYE BASKETBALL, and BETTER CAMPING Magazine. His 1968 ROCKET FOOTBALL MAGAZINE won second place nationally for editorial excellence among colleges and universities publishing up to 20,000 football programs per season.

THE BUSINESS MANAGER

A. G. FRANCIS

A. G. (Barney) Francis, Auditor and Business Manager of Athletics, has been with the University of Toledo since 1949 when he was named Athletic Director. He served in that capacity through 1954, and the following year accepted the business manager position. Then in 1956, the responsibilities of auditor were added.

Francis is a native of Wilkes Barre, Pa., and was graduated from high school in Tiffin, Ohio. He is the only former Otterbein College athlete to win 12 major sport letters in three years. He was named all-Ohio quarterback in 1932 and was all-Ohio forward in basketball in 1932-33. He captained Otterbein football and basketball teams.

Francis came to Toledo from Lancaster, Ohio, High School where he directed athletics and coached the football and basketball teams. He also served as coach and athletic director at Youngstown Struthers, Cleveland Shaker Heights and Columbus Upper Arlington high schools.
